

Friday - 7 December 1951

25X1

1. Mr. John Adams, Assistant General Counsel, Department of Defense, informed me of the Department's concern regarding the fact that [redacted] had been employed by Sen. Cain, a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, and to warn CIA of this problem. As a member of the Committee, Sen. Cain is authorized to take classified information to his office, where in the Senator's absence it could be reviewed by [redacted]. In addition, Sen. Cain sent [redacted] to Europe recently to investigate some problems for him, at which time the military security people were deeply concerned. I informed Mr. Adams that we had been aware of the problem when [redacted] was employed by the Senate Judiciary Committee and cited him the Drew Pearson column of 23 February 1950. (See memo to Assistant Deputy (I&S) this date in Sen. Cain's file).

2. The Director has requested information as to whether he is eligible for the Indiana State veterans bonus, and if so what steps need be taken.
